We wish to call the attention of the trustees, both the old and newly elected ones, to the fact that there is an annual meeting of Library Trustees on the Saturday evening following the town meeting, and it is desired that as many as possible will attend it at the Library at 8:30.

There has been no meeting of the trustees for the past two years, possibly because they were unaware of the meeting being an annual one without special notice.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

Marlboro, N. H., Jan. 31, 1920.

To the School Board and Citizens of Gilsum:

I submit my first annual report as Superintendent of Schools. I will first make brief mention of the educational program in the state and the new school law which went into effect September 1, 1919, and then call attention to some of the most important needs and problems that require your immediate attention and action.

In his address at the School Board Conference in Concord last October, Governor Bartlett said, among other things,—“To equalize school opportunities, and then to raise that equalized level, has been the thought uppermost in my mind in recommending and stimulating a revision of the school laws. . . . The sunlight of education must shadow no dark spots. It must shine with equal cheer and clearness in the poor kitchens under the far-off hills as in the rich and affluent centers.”

The purpose of the new law is to make such equalization effective. By this law an organization is provided which is to administer the school affairs of the state on ordinary business principles. State-wide supervision is made compulsory, and provision is made for standardizing all the schools of the state. A standard school is defined as “one (1) maintained for at least thirty-six weeks in each year, (2) in a suitable and sanitary building, (3) equipped with approved furniture, books, maps and other necessary appliances, (4) taught by an approved teacher, (5) directed and supervised by an approved superintendent, (6) with suitable provision for the health and physical welfare of all pupils." The law also provides for state aid to towns in which a tax of $5 on $1000 of valuation does not yield sufficient money for maintaining such standard schools.

Such powers are given the State Board and its officers as are necessary to secure a degree of uniformity in procedure and in standards that will insure equality of opportunity to all the children in the state, and the duties of the superintendents in directing and supervising the work of the schools are defined; but the management of all school business in the districts is vested in the local school boards, with power to select the superintendent, teachers and other employees of the district, and to determine their salaries.

Among the requirements for a standard school, noted above, the fourth is now the most difficult to meet throughout the state, because of the shortage of teachers. Reliable information shows us that some twenty-two percent of the teachers of the country have quit teaching in the past year. While there are many causes for this condition it is generally agreed that the chief reason is inadequate pay, and any measures that may be taken to recruit teachers, especially for the rural districts, will fail unless considerably increased wages are paid. I do not mean to imply that we should appropriate more money for teachers' salaries and then pay it to incompetent or poorly trained teachers, but we must be ready to pay the price when good teachers can be secured. If the district at its March meeting will vote an amount of money sufficient to cover a substantial increase in teachers' salaries the school board will then be in a position to retain good teachers longer, and to take advantage of the first opportunity to secure well trained and competent teachers when changes have to be made.

Next to the need for increased salaries for good teachers, the most important problem is that of making the school buildings "suitable and sanitary." In preparing the budgets to be submitted at the March school meeting, we shall need to make a careful estimate of the cost of such alterations as may be needed to make the schoolhouses conform to the requirements prescribed by the State Board of Education. These alterations cannot be stated in full detail until the Board issues the revised and final regulations, but we know that among the requirements will be the following :—

1. Provision for windows on the pupils' left hand, or left and rear, only, and in area equal to at least one-fifth of the floor area of the school room ; walls and ceilings painted or tinted a light color ; and light colored curtains.
2. A jacketed heater with some provision for drawing fresh air from outside, and means of securing good ventilation without direct drafts on the pupils.
3. Floors put in good condition and oiled or treated in some other manner to keep down the dust.
4. New or remodeled outhouses, opening from the school room or at least from within the school building and not opening from outside, with properly ventilated, fly-proof vaults and covered seats.
5. Good furniture and equipment.
6. Better facilities for washing, with soap and sanitary towels.

It is unfortunate that the action of the special district meeting did not prove to be legal so that much of the work that was then planned could be done at the Christmas vacation. However the work at the Village school can now be more specifically laid out and cost can be determined more accurately than was possible then, and no doubt the district at the March meeting will show the same generosity as at the special meeting and appropriate the money needed.

I would call attention also to the problems of transportation of pupils. That is an item of considerable expense and we should make an effort to discover a way to provide for the children who live at a distance that will be more economical. It may be that the children in the Belvidere district and in the West part of the town could be brought together or all brought to the Village school at less expense than is now involved in their transportation and the cost of the two schools. The distance is considerable, especially for some of those in the Belvidere district, and there would doubtless be many days in the winter and spring when it would be impracticable for them to ride to the Village, but we have found it impossible to secure teachers of experience and training to take the schools, and one of them has now been closed since Thanksgiving time except for a few days, and the other will soon be closed probably. It would be far better for the children to go to the Village school and lose several days during the year than to lose several weeks because no teacher can be secured.

I find the work at the Village school well organized and the work of the teachers very commendable, and I would urge that you make every effort to retain them as long as may be possible. They are not only doing the usual work of the school well, but they are exerting an influence on the character of the boys and girls that will produce better citizens and that is the great aim of education today. And in conclusion I would say that the improvements that are contemplated in the school buildings, by providing better sanitary conditions and more cheerful surroundings and more inspiring environment, will have a very great effect on the character of the children also. The state has committed itself to a program of education that is bound to have far reaching results in training the boys and girls who will be its citizens in the future, and we must all stand behind it loyally and earnestly.

I have been greatly helped by the earnest cooperation of your School Board and their interest in carrying on the work of the schools has made the performance of my duties a pleasure.

Respectfully,

VERNON S. AMES.
